

Top Tips for Tenderers – webinar questions and answers

Question	ETF response
When an ITT has multiple strands, how do we respond, if we want to apply for more than one strand?	ITTs should set out if one tender response document can cover one or

The ITT are directly sent by you, or we can access from your website? Is there any place we need to register to get the ITT?	ITTs are published via the mytenders portal (www.mytenders.org). You can register for free with the site, which will give you access to all ETF ITTs. Once you have access to mytenders, simply register your interest for an ITT, which will enable you to download all relevant documentation and information, will enable you to submit questions and submit a tender. Links to our ITTs can also be found from the government's contracts finder database.
what sort of feedback do you give to unsuccessful tenderers? Can Community Interest companies or Charities apply?	We always aim to provide constructive and relevant feedback for all tenders submitted to us. The intention is for the feedback to help inform and improve future tenders you might choose to submit to us.